BROADCAST TO THE WORLD!

Friday 18 July - Sunday 20 July

Find out how easy and fun it is to create your OWN radio show on our FREE weekend course, at beautiful Seale-Hayne in Devon.

Hannahs' Access All Aerials project helps people with disabilities 'break broadcasting boundaries' and wants to help other young people, aged 19-25, take to the airwaves on a new residential course with a team of experienced and passionate presenters.

The course will cover:

- Radio Presenting & Production Skills
- DJ Mixing Techniques
- Technology Training & Jingle Production

Participants will have the opportunity to take part in a LIVE on-line broadcast and/or DJ in a nightclub environment, as well start their own regular show. Course runs from 6pm on Friday to 4pm on Sunday.

sound communities

The benefits of becoming a radio presenter include:

- Sharing your message & ideas with the world
- Creating a platform for issues & special interests
- Team work & friendship
- Boosted confidence & improved communication skills
- New technical ability and life skills

This event has been made possible by the kind support of: Starbucks, Young Devon, National Citizen Service, Hannahs

The Access All Aerials helps people with disabilities to:

1. Create their own radio shows regardless of technical and/or individual ability
2. Highlight disability perspectives, issues and awareness, and...
3. Create a global, on-line radio network that educates, inspires and empowers
